The defendant John Muir was arrested in this district on an out-of-district warrant out of Boston, and was released by this Court on a $25,000 bond co-signed by his mother. The Court ordered Mr. Muir to appear in Boston on March 7, 2011. One of the conditions of the bond was that Mr. Muir surrender his passport to the Court, which he did.

After Court, counsel discovered that the marshals who arrested Mr. Muir seized his drivers license, and then proceeded to send it to his parents' address in New Jersey. Unfortunately, his mother is here in California (because she signed on the bond) and his father has had a surgical procedure which has placed him in the hospital, and which means he cannot get the mail in New Jersey. As a result, Mr. Muir does not presently have a Government ID in his possession, and the airlines will not let him fly on the flight he was scheduled to take on Saturday to return to Boston.

1 As a result, Mr. Muir cannot make his court appearance on Monday, March 7 in Boston.
2 The Assistant United States Attorney in Boston has agreed as a result to continue the Boston
3 court appearance for one week until March 14, 2011, and counsel has asked the Assistant United
4 States Attorney who appeared on this case in this district, Tarek Helou, to sign this stipulation
5 continuing the appearance date in Boston by one week.

6 The parties therefore ask the Court to sign the proposed order accompanying this 7 stipulation.
